Timeline of study

1000 B.C.- The Latins migrated across the Alps from Central Europe. 600 B.C.- The Etruscan controlled large areas of the Italian Peninnsula ,including Rome.

471 B.C.- The Phelbians stopped all work and marched out of Rome.

753 B.C- The Latin people founded a village that became the city of Rome. 509 B.C.- The Romans rebeled againsttheir Etruscan ruler and started a new form of government.